

Mid-Year Reflection Concert Review

BibleMouse.com

Assessing Your Musical Growth

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned in the Mid-Year Reflection Concert lesson.

1. What should you do to engage with your audience during a performance?

- A. Look at your music only
- B. Make eye contact
- C. Avoid moving

2. How can music glorify God according to the lesson?

3. Playing with expression is not important in a performance.

- True False

4. The instruments mentioned in Psalm 150 include the trumpet, lute, harp, tambourine, stringed instruments, and ____

5. What are two ways you can continue improving as a musician?

6. What is one key aspect of concert etiquette?

- A. Talking loudly during the performance
- B. Standing confidently
- C. Sitting down without paying attention

7. Mid-year performances help children track their musical progress.

- True False

8. During the Family Music Celebration, you should perform your piece with ____ and confidence.

9. What did you learn about yourself as a musician during the first semester?

10. Which of the following is NOT a talking point for performing?

- A. Make eye contact
- B. Avoid smiling
- C. Stand confidently

Answer Key

1. Make eye contact 2. Music can glorify God by expressing our praise and worship through instruments and singing. 3. False 4. pipes 5. I can practice regularly and seek feedback from my family and teachers. 6. Standing confidently 7. True 8. expression 9. I learned that I can perform in front of others and enjoy making music. 10. Avoid smiling

