

Instrumental Recital Preparation Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Repertoire Selection

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you've learned about selecting pieces for your recital.

1. What is an important factor to consider when choosing recital pieces?

- A. Only technical complexity
- B. Diverse musical skills
- C. Personal enjoyment only

2. Colossians 3:23 encourages us to work at everything with all our ____, as if we are working for the Lord.

3. What are two ways to evaluate your musical strengths when selecting pieces?

---

---

---

4. It is important to only choose pieces that are easy to play for your recital.

- True       False

5. How can your selected pieces reflect your musical growth?

- A. By choosing only songs you've played before
- B. By including pieces that challenge you
- C. By selecting the most popular songs

6. Pieces for a recital should balance technical complexity with ____ to ensure you enjoy playing them.

7. What makes your selected pieces special for your recital?

---

---

---

8. All pieces selected for a recital should demonstrate the same musical skills.

- True       False

9. What is one benefit of showing musical improvement through your selections?

- A. It makes the performance easier
- B. It impresses the audience
- C. It builds your confidence

10. What is one principle of strategic repertoire selection you learned, and why is it important?

---

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. Diverse musical skills 2. heart 3. You can think about the skills you feel confident in and the types of music you enjoy playing. Also, consider feedback from your teacher or peers. 4. False 5. By including pieces that challenge you 6. personal enjoyment 7. They highlight my growth as a musician and showcase different skills I have developed. Each piece has a unique story for me. 8. False 9. It builds your confidence 10. One principle is to choose pieces that showcase different musical skills. This is important because it allows me to show my versatility and growth as a musician.