

Creation's Beauty Proclaimed

BibleMouse.com

5th Grade Music Review

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about 'For the Beauty of the Earth' and creation's praise.

1. How does the hymn 'For the Beauty of the Earth' help us appreciate God's creation?

---

---

---

2. What is the structure of the song we practiced?

- A. One-part harmony
- B. Two-part harmony
- C. Three-part harmony

3. Three-part harmony requires singers to listen carefully to each other.

True  False

4. According to Psalm 148:3-5, the sun and moon, shining stars, and the ____ are all called to praise God.

5. Why is it important to have clear pronunciation when singing?

---

---

---

6. The hymn 'For the Beauty of the Earth' is only about music, not about nature.

True  False

7. What is a benefit of independent part singing skills?

- A. It allows us to sing louder
- B. It helps us hear our own voice
- C. It enhances our ability to harmonize

8. The song we practiced celebrates God's ____ through music.

9. What makes three-part harmony special compared to one-part singing?

---

---

---

10. Music can be a way to express our worship to God.

True  False

---

Answer Key

1. The hymn reminds us of the beauty in nature and encourages us to worship God for His creations. 2. 2 3. True 4. highest heavens 5. Clear pronunciation helps the audience understand the lyrics and enhances the beauty of the music. 6. False 7. It enhances our ability to harmonize 8. creation 9. Three-part harmony adds depth and richness to the music, making it more enjoyable to listen to. 10. True

