

Family Chorale Performance Review

BibleMouse.com

Reflecting on Our Music Experience

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about performing as a family vocal ensemble.

1. What is one objective of the family chorale performance?

- A. Perform a solo arrangement
- B. Perform a three-part vocal arrangement
- C. Perform a dance routine

2. Why is it important to listen to other parts while singing in an ensemble?

---

---

---

3. Self-evaluation is not important after a performance.

- True       False

4. Psalm 95:1-2 encourages us to sing for joy to ____ and shout aloud to the rock of our salvation.

5. What is a key technique for performing in a three-part arrangement?

- A. Singing louder than everyone else
- B. Independent part singing
- C. Only focusing on your own part

6. What went well in our family chorale performance? Provide specific examples.

---

---

---

---

7. Recording our performance helps us evaluate our singing skills.

- True       False

8. To improve our performance next time, we could work on ____ and blend our voices better.

9. What makes a great ensemble performance?

- A. Everyone singing the same part
- B. Strong communication and listening
- C. Practicing only once

10. How can we support each other while singing different parts?

---

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. Perform a three-part vocal arrangement 2. Listening to other parts helps us stay in harmony and improves our overall performance. 3. False 4. Yahweh 5. Independent part singing 6. Everyone sang in harmony, and our timing was excellent. We also felt connected as a family. 7. True 8. dynamics 9. Strong communication and listening 10. We can encourage each other, help with difficult notes, and give positive feedback after practice.