

Music and Emotion Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Emotional Expression through Music

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about how music expresses emotions.

1. What does Psalm 33:3 encourage us to do with music?

- A. Play skillfully with a shout of joy
- B. Only listen to music
- C. Write down lyrics

2. What emotion did you choose for your musical composition? Describe it in a few sentences.

---

---

---

3. Rhythm can represent the emotional ____ of a piece of music.

4. Pitch and tone color have no effect on the mood of a song.

- True       False

5. Which musical element can help to express emotional depth?

- A. Tempo
- B. Volume
- C. Both tempo and volume

6. How did you communicate the emotion you chose in your musical piece? Give specific examples of techniques you used.

---

---

---

---

7. Musical dynamics can express emotional ____ in a composition.

8. A happy song typically has a fast tempo and bright dynamics.

- True       False

9. Which instruments do you think best express happiness?

- A. Piano and violin
- B. Drums and trumpet
- C. Flute and guitar

10. Why is it important to develop emotional intelligence through music? Provide your thoughts.

---

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. Play skillfully with a shout of joy 2. I chose sadness. I used slow rhythms and soft dynamics to express this feeling. 3. intensity 4. False 5. Both tempo and volume 6. I used a slow tempo and minor chords to create a sad feeling. I also played softly to add to the emotional effect. 7. depth 8. True 9. Drums and trumpet 10. Developing emotional intelligence helps us understand our own feelings and those of others. Music is a powerful way to express and share emotions.