

Windows to the Invisible: Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding the Microscopic World

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about microscopes and the microscopic world.

1. What is one part of a microscope?

- A. Lens
- B. Screwdriver
- C. Hammer

2. We use a ____ to view things that are too small to see with our eyes.

3. How does using a microscope help us understand God's creation? Give an example.

4. You should always carry the microscope with one hand.

- True False

5. What should you do first when using a microscope?

- A. Look through the eyepiece
- B. Adjust the focus
- C. Turn on the light

6. Psalm 139:14 teaches us that we are ____ and wonderfully made.

7. What did you find surprising about what you saw under the microscope?

8. Focusing a microscope is important for seeing details clearly.

- True False

9. Why is it important to handle a microscope carefully?

- A. To make it look nice
- B. To avoid breaking it and hurting yourself
- C. Because it's heavy

10. How does seeing tiny details in creation help you appreciate God's creativity?

Answer Key

1. Lens 2. microscope 3. Using a microscope helps us see tiny cells that make up all living things. This shows us how detailed and complex God's creation is. 4. False 5. Turn on the light 6. fearfully 7. I was surprised to see how many tiny organisms were in a drop of pond water. It made me realize how alive everything is! 8. True 9. To avoid breaking it and hurting yourself 10. Seeing tiny details makes me realize how much thought and design God put into everything. It shows me that God cares about all aspects of creation, no matter how small.