

Conservation Solutions Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Human Impact on Ecosystems

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about conservation and our responsibility to protect ecosystems.

1. What is one way humans can help protect ecosystems?

- A. Start pollution
- B. Plant trees
- C. Hunt endangered species

2. Why is it important to have protected areas and national parks?

3. Genesis 2:15 shows that God wants us to ___ and keep the garden.

4. Restoration projects can help damaged ecosystems recover.

- True False

5. What is meant by sustainable practices in agriculture?

- A. Using chemicals only
- B. Planting as many crops as possible
- C. Practices that do not harm the environment

6. How can our actions reflect God's love for creation?

7. Conservation is about responsible management of ___ resources.

8. Conservation strategies are unnecessary because nature can take care of itself.

- True False

9. What is one benefit of restoration projects?

- A. They make land more valuable
- B. They help ecosystems recover
- C. They increase pollution

10. What are three ways we can help protect ecosystems?

Answer Key

1. Plant trees 2. Protected areas help preserve wildlife and habitats. 3. cultivate 4. True 5. Practices that do not harm the environment 6. By taking care of the environment, we show that we value God's creation. 7. natural 8. False 9. They help ecosystems recover 10. 1. Reduce waste and recycle. 2. Support conservation projects. 3. Educate others about the importance of protecting nature.