

Solar System Travel Brochure Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Earth's Place in the Solar System

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the Solar System Travel Brochure lesson.

1. What is one unique feature you might include in your travel brochure about a planet?

- A. Its size
- B. Its color
- C. Both size and color

2. What surprised you most about your planet during your research? Explain in a few sentences.

3. The ___ declares the glory of God, showing His handiwork.

4. A travel brochure should only include scientific facts without creative design.

- True False

5. How does understanding planetary diversity reflect God's creativity? Provide an example.

6. Which of these is an important guideline for creating your travel brochure?

- A. Make it colorful
- B. Include accurate scientific information
- C. Use only text

7. The distance of a planet from the sun is not important for a travel brochure.

- True False

8. Your brochure must include the planet's size and its distance from the ___.

9. Which skill is NOT mentioned as part of the travel brochure project?

- A. Research skills
- B. Mathematical skills
- C. Presentation skills

10. What makes a travel brochure interesting? Describe at least two elements.

Answer Key

1. Both size and color 2. I was surprised to learn that Jupiter has a giant storm called the Great Red Spot. It is much larger than Earth! 3. heavens 4. False 5. Understanding planetary diversity shows God's creativity because each planet has unique features. For example, Saturn's rings are beautiful and different from any other planet. 6. Include accurate scientific information 7. False 8. sun 9. Mathematical skills 10. A travel brochure is interesting when it has colorful images and engaging facts about the planet. It should also be easy to read and visually appealing.