

Science Communication Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Presentation Day 3

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about final student scientific presentations.

1. What is one objective of the final presentations?

- A. To complete final presentations
- B. To start new projects
- C. To take a test

2. Why is effective oral communication important in science presentations?

3. Proverbs 15:23 talks about the joy of giving an apt answer in communication.

- True False

4. Encouraging active listening is important for ____ during presentations.

5. What should you do to give constructive feedback to a classmate after their presentation?

- A. Encourage them to improve
- B. Criticize them harshly
- C. Ignore their efforts

6. What did you learn from your classmates' research during the presentations?

7. Reviewing presentation etiquette is not necessary for effective communication.

- True False

8. A timely word can bring ____, according to Proverbs 15:23.

9. What makes scientific communication valuable?

- A. It helps others understand complex ideas
- B. It makes presentations longer
- C. It focuses only on data

10. How can we support our classmates during their presentations?

Answer Key

1. To complete final presentations 2. Effective communication helps share knowledge clearly and allows others to understand our findings better. 3. True 4. support 5. Encourage them to improve 6. I learned about different scientific topics and how to present findings effectively, which can help in my future presentations. 7. False 8. joy 9. It helps others understand complex ideas 10. We can support them by listening actively, giving positive feedback, and asking questions to show interest in their work.