

Science Fair Preparation Review

BibleMouse.com

Celebrating God's Creation: Science Fair

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson content about preparing for the science fair.

1. What are some ways to organize your research for the science fair?

---

---

---

2. What does Psalm 104:24 remind us about God's creation?

- A. It is random and chaotic
- B. It is made with wisdom
- C. It is not important

3. To make your science fair project engaging, you should use ____ elements to explain your findings.

4. Organizing research chronologically is not important for a science fair project.

- True       False

5. Your science fair project should demonstrate excitement for ____ as part of God's creative process.

6. What is one way to make your scientific discoveries interesting to others?

- A. Speak very quietly
- B. Use lots of complicated words
- C. Engage your audience with visuals and stories

7. Why is it important to show God's creative design in your project?

---

---

---

8. Visual elements can help explain findings in a science fair project.

- True       False

9. What should your science fair display board include?

- A. Just text and no pictures
- B. Research findings and clear sections
- C. Only drawings with no explanations

10. What makes a presentation engaging according to our discussion?

---

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. You can organize research chronologically and create clear sections for each part of your project. 2. It is made with wisdom 3. visual 4. False 5. scientific discovery 6. Engage your audience with visuals and stories 7. It helps others appreciate the beauty and intricacy of creation and understand that science reflects God's work. 8. True 9. Research findings and clear sections 10. A presentation is engaging when it is interactive, uses visuals, and involves storytelling to capture the audience's attention.