

Science Fair Display Review

BibleMouse.com

Celebrating God's Creation through Science

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about creating a science fair display board.

1. What are some key elements that make our science fair display board clear and interesting?

2. What does Colossians 3:23 encourage us to do with our work?

- A. Work for men
- B. Work heartily for the Lord
- C. Work only for ourselves

3. Our science fair display should tell a clear story of scientific investigation.

- True False

4. Our project shows God's creativity by demonstrating His ____ in the natural world.

5. Why is it important to have a visually appealing display board?

6. What is one way to make our scientific discoveries engaging?

- A. Use small font sizes
- B. Add colorful visuals
- C. Make it hard to read

7. Clear section organization is not necessary for a good display board.

- True False

8. When presenting our display, we should work ____ as for the Lord.

9. In what ways can we demonstrate stewardship of our scientific learning?

10. What is a key factor to consider when choosing fonts for our display?

- A. Creative designs only
- B. Readability
- C. Using as many colors as possible

Answer Key

1. Key elements include clear section organization, readable fonts, and visual appeal. 2. Work heartily for the Lord 3. True 4. design 5. A visually appealing display attracts viewers' attention and helps them engage with the information. It also shows that we care about our work and want to share our findings effectively. 6. Add colorful visuals 7. False 8. heartily 9. We can demonstrate stewardship by taking care of our materials, sharing our findings responsibly, and using our knowledge to help others understand God's creation. 10. Readability