

Reflection and Growth

BibleMouse.com

Celebrating God's Creation: Science Fair

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about reflection on scientific learning and God's creation.

1. What did you learn about yourself as a scientist throughout the year?

2. What did Psalm 104:24 teach us about God's creation?

- A. It is random and chaotic
- B. It shows a lack of wisdom
- C. It is made with wisdom and is full of riches

3. Your BibleMouse Science Journal helped you track your discoveries throughout the year.

- True False

4. Reflecting on my growth as a scientist makes me feel ____ for God's creation.

5. How has your understanding of God's creation grown over the year?

6. What project challenged you the most this year?

- A. My science fair project
- B. Conducting experiments
- C. Writing reports

7. Scientific inquiry reveals God's incredible design.

- True False

8. The earth is full of God's ____ according to Psalm 104:24.

9. Describe how you can connect your discoveries to God's creative power in your visual map.

10. In what way can you celebrate your scientific discoveries?

- A. By sharing them with others
- B. Keeping them to myself
- C. Forgetting about them

Answer Key

1. I learned that I am curious and enjoy exploring new concepts. I also became better at asking questions and seeking answers. 2. It is made with wisdom and is full of riches 3. True 4. grateful 5. I now see how everything in nature is connected and designed perfectly. I appreciate the details of creation more than before. 6. My science fair project 7. True 8. riches 9. I can show how each discovery relates to a specific aspect of creation, like how plants produce oxygen and support life, reflecting God's design. 10. By sharing them with others