

Singing Our Emotions

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Happy and Sad in Music

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the questions about our lesson on emotions in music.

1. What makes a voice sound happy? Circle the correct answer.

Soft and quiet

Loud and cheerful

Slow and sad

2. God loves to hear us express our feelings through music.

True

False

3. Today, we learned that music can show our ____ and sad feelings.

4. Draw a line from each emotion to its sound.

Happy Voice

Loud and cheerful

Sad Voice

Soft and low

5. How does a sad voice sound different? Circle the correct answer.

Bright and fast

Low and soft

High and loud

6. We only sing happy songs to talk to God.

True

False

7. We can use music to talk to ____ and share our feelings.

8. Match the emotion to how we sing it.

Happy

With a smile

Sad

With a frown

9. What emotions did we sing today? Circle the correct answer.

Happy and angry

Happy and sad

Sad and scared

10. Our voices cannot change how a song sounds.

True

False

Answer Key

1. Loud and cheerful 2. True 3. happy 4. Happy Voice - Loud and cheerful, Sad Voice - Soft and low 5. Low and soft 6. False 7. God 8. Happy - With a smile, Sad - With a frown 9. Happy and sad 10. False