

Soil Types Review

BibleMouse.com

Learning About Sandy, Clay, and Loamy Soil

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the questions about the different types of soil.

1. What type of soil is grainy and falls apart easily? Circle the correct answer.

Clay soil

Sandy soil

Loamy soil

2. Clay soil is ___ and holds together tightly.

3. Loamy soil feels soft and crumbly.

True

False

4. Draw a line from each soil type to its description.

Sandy soil

Grainy and falls apart

Clay soil

Sticky and holds together

Loamy soil

Soft and crumbly

5. Which soil type did you learn is a mix? Circle the correct answer.

Sandy soil

Loamy soil

Clay soil

6. Sandy soil feels smooth like glass.

True

False

7. God created different types of soil to show His ___ design.

8. What made clay soil special? Circle the correct answer.

It is grainy

It is sticky

It is crumbly

9. We can appreciate God's design in soil diversity.

True

False

10. I liked touching ___ soil the most.

Answer Key

1. Sandy soil 2. sticky 3. True 4. 0 5. 1 6. False 7. creative 8. sticky 9. True 10. (any soil type)